JONESVILLE — Walk into any one of the three Great Start Readiness Program classrooms at Williams Elementary School during playtime, and one might consider it organized chaos.

Toys strewn all over the floor, with the 16 students having a good time.

Director Joey Curson said it may look like chaos, but it quickly changes when cleanup time comes around.

“You will be amazed, all of the students will work together to clean up the room,” she said, during a short tour of the classrooms Tuesday morning.

When it came to cleanup time, each of the
