Old friend’s sudden withdrawal causes a crisis of confidence

DEAR ABBEY
My best friend, Sue, abruptly ended our friendship several months ago. I simply can’t get over it. We were close friends for over ten years. We had been in first grade together until we attended different high schools as children; she was the maid of honor at my wedding; and through the past ten years we’ve been part of most of our adult lives, we maintained a close friendship through the birth of our children and our vari- ous pursuits.

Now I’m talking about something I said and stopped returning phone calls. I think she thought I was wrong, she said she was going to end our “friendship” wasn’t right, I “wished” her well. Around the time of our closeness, she also cut ties with other friends, and a couple of years later, stopped attending church. So this is a pattern with your friends.

I have solid evidence that my husband, grown kids, es- sentially, just about everyone, I care about, has the same sense of loss, I miss Ann and I need you, don’t you? I don’t need your phone calls or emails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, An don’t return phone calls or e-mails.

Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails.

SNACKS will be provided. For more in- formation contact Kris at 517-902-4653 or Beverly Ramsdell at 517-902-4653 or Sheila Brown Double at 517-902-4653.

Dear Abby — Letter Book- ed, a weekly column, is now available for the public. For more information call the library at 517-263-0011.

THE Lenawee County Women’s Self Help Center is sponsoring a blood drive on May 23. Donors will be welcome at the community center, 1257 E. Siena Heights Drive, Tuesday, May 23. The blood drive will be from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday.

Blood drive on Tuesday

The American Red Cross will have two blood drives in Lenawee County this week. Both will be from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday: Tecumseh United Methodist Church, 33 1/2 S. Main St. From noon to 5 p.m. at the Lenawee County Extension Center, 412 W. St. Mary Ave., Adrian.

To order “How to Write Letters for All Occasions,” send your name and mail- address and a check for $6.95 to Ford, P.O. Box 944, Los Angeles, CA 90044.

Dear Abby is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Jane Elliott, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Friedman Phillips. Contact Dear Abby at www.dearabby.com or P.O. Box 944, Los Angeles, CA 90044.

Dear Abby — Letter Book- ed, a weekly column, is now available for the public. For more information call the library at 517-263-0011.

Dear Abby — Letter Book- ed, a weekly column, is now available for the public. For more information call the library at 517-263-0011.

Old friend’s sudden withdrawal causes a crisis of confidence

DEAR ABBEY
My best friend, Sue, abruptly ended our friendship several months ago. I simply can’t get over it. We were close friends for over ten years. We had been in first grade together until we attended different high schools as children; she was the maid of honor at my wedding; and through the past ten years we’ve been part of most of our adult lives, we maintained a close friendship through the birth of our children and our vari- ous pursuits.

Now I’m talking about something I said and stopped returning phone calls. I think she thought I was wrong, she said she was going to end our “friendship” wasn’t right, I “wished” her well. Around the time of our closeness, she also cut ties with other friends, and a couple of years later, stopped attending church. So this is a pattern with your friends.

I have solid evidence that my husband, grown kids, es- sentially, just about everyone, I care about, has the same sense of loss, I miss Ann and I need you, don’t you? I don’t need your phone calls or emails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails. Lifting her making me feel like I’m not needed, Ann doesn’t return phone calls or e-mails.

SNACKS will be provided. For more in- formation contact Kris at 517-902-4653 or Beverly Ramsdell at 517-902-4653 or Sheila Brown Double at 517-902-4653.

Dear Abby — Letter Book- ed, a weekly column, is now available for the public. For more information call the library at 517-263-0011.

The Lenawee County Women’s Self Help Center is sponsoring a blood drive on May 23. Donors will be welcome at the community center, 1257 E. Siena Heights Drive, Tuesday, May 23. The blood drive will be from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday.

Blood drive on Tuesday

The American Red Cross will have two blood drives in Lenawee County this week. Both will be from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday: Tecumseh United Methodist Church, 33 1/2 S. Main St. From noon to 5 p.m. at the Lenawee County Extension Center, 412 W. St. Mary Ave., Adrian.

To order “How to Write Letters for All Occasions,” send your name and mail- address and a check for $6.95 to Ford, P.O. Box 944, Los Angeles, CA 90044.

Dear Abby is written by Abigail Van Buren, also known as Jane Elliott, and was founded by her mother, Pauline Friedman Phillips. Contact Dear Abby at www.dearabby.com or P.O. Box 944, Los Angeles, CA 90044.